Description and Location

The small rural village of Josefsthal (800 - 1,900 m) is surrounded by magnificent mountain countryside. The youth hostel, which is built in the Upper Bavarian style, lies at the foot of the Jägerkamp and the Brecherspitze peaks and is close to Tegernsee Valley and the Wendelstein mountain range. The small and well-kept hostel is cosy and homely in atmosphere.

Facilities

105 beds divided among 2- to 14-bed rooms equipped with wash facilities; some rooms with en-suite shower/WC for group leaders, teachers and families; 3 dining rooms (with 100/24/12 places) and a separate family day room with cots, a diaper changing area and facilities for warming up baby food, and a room for drying wet outerwear, etc. Amenities include 2 TV sets, a DVD player, a video projector and pull-down screen, internet terminal, slide projector with sound control, small photocopier, daylight projector, white-board, guests washing machine and tumbler drier, disco light show and sound system, outdoor ping-pong tables and lawn play area.

Special Programmes

Our youth hostel, which is suitable for both school classes and families, stages activities such as aerial tree-to-tree and windsurfing courses, guided tours of avalanche barriers, mountain bike tours, sunrise hikes, hut-to-hut hiking tours, day excursions, and much, much more. Ask for our programme leaflet for further details.

With winter Olympic activities, après-ski parties, child care services, live zither music and opportunities for parents to socialise in the evenings, complete with table service until 10 p.m., fathers, mothers and children are sure to have a good time in the holidays with our family programmes.
